

Employee Policy

Professional conduct, confidentiality, technology use, conflicts, assets, and workplace standards

Organization: Asterion Technologies Pvt. Ltd.

Effective Date: 1 January 2026

Document Status: Internal Policy — Version 1.0

1. Purpose

This Employee Policy establishes expected standards for professional conduct, information handling, workplace behavior, company property, conflicts of interest, and responsible use of company systems.

2. Professional Conduct

- Employees are expected to communicate respectfully and behave professionally with colleagues, customers, vendors, and visitors.
- Threatening, abusive, discriminatory, or deliberately disruptive behavior is prohibited.
- Employees must cooperate with reasonable workplace investigations.

3. Confidential Information

- Employees must protect confidential company information and access information only when authorized.
- Confidential information must not be disclosed to unauthorized persons or transferred to personal storage without authorization.
- Employees must follow company information-security procedures when handling business documents.

4. Acceptable Use of Technology

- Company devices, accounts, networks, and software are primarily provided for authorized business purposes.
- Employees must not intentionally bypass security controls, share credentials, or install unauthorized software on company-managed systems.
- Security incidents must be reported promptly to the IT or Security team.

5. Conflicts of Interest

- Employees must disclose situations in which personal interests could materially influence business decisions.
- Employees must not use confidential company information for personal financial gain.
- Outside activities must not materially interfere with assigned duties.

6. Company Property

- Company equipment, access cards, documents, and other assets must be used responsibly.
- Assets must be returned upon request or at the end of employment.
- Loss or suspected theft of company property must be reported promptly.

7. Gifts and Hospitality

- Employees must not accept gifts or benefits that could reasonably create an obligation or influence a business decision.
- Nominal promotional items may be accepted when permitted by applicable company rules and local requirements.

8. Policy Violations

Violations may result in counseling, written warnings, access restrictions, suspension, termination, or other action appropriate to the circumstances and applicable employment terms.

Document control: This dummy document is synthetic test data created for Neroxa AI retrieval, access-control, citation, and policy-question testing. It is not legal, HR, payroll, or financial advice and has no real-world authority.