

Human Resources Policy

Recruitment, onboarding, attendance, leave, performance, learning, and separation

Organization: Asterion Technologies Pvt. Ltd.

Effective Date: 1 January 2026

Document Status: Internal Policy — Version 1.0

1. Purpose and Scope

This HR Policy defines general employment practices covering recruitment, onboarding, attendance, leave, performance management, learning, workplace conduct, and separation.

It applies to regular employees, probationary employees, and fixed-term employees unless a written employment agreement states otherwise.

2. Recruitment and Selection

- Hiring managers must define the role requirements before recruitment begins.
- Selection decisions should be based on job-related qualifications, demonstrated capability, and organizational requirements.
- Candidates may be required to complete interviews, assessments, reference checks, or other role-appropriate evaluations.

3. Onboarding and Probation

- New employees shall complete onboarding activities covering company systems, security, workplace conduct, and role expectations.
- The standard probationary period is six months unless specified differently in the employment agreement.
- Managers shall provide feedback during probation and record the final probation outcome.

4. Attendance and Working Hours

- Standard working hours are 9:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, with applicable breaks.
- Employees must record attendance using the designated company system.
- Repeated unexplained absence or attendance manipulation may result in disciplinary action.

5. Leave

- Employees should request planned leave through the HR system at least three working days in advance.
- Emergency leave should be communicated to the reporting manager as soon as reasonably possible.
- Leave approval is subject to applicable company rules, staffing requirements, and employment terms.

6. Performance Management

- Performance reviews are normally conducted twice each year.
- Performance discussions should address goals, outcomes, collaboration, development needs, and future objectives.

- Where performance remains below expectations, the company may establish a documented improvement plan.

7. Learning and Development

- Employees may request training relevant to their current role or planned career development.
- Training requiring significant expenditure must receive manager and HR approval before enrollment.

8. Separation

- Employees leaving the company must complete the prescribed notice, handover, asset-return, and exit processes.
- HR shall coordinate final documentation with Finance, IT, and the employee's department.

Document control: This dummy document is synthetic test data created for Neroxa AI retrieval, access-control, citation, and policy-question testing. It is not legal, HR, payroll, or financial advice and has no real-world authority.